SAMPLE CUE CARD

Describe a city you would like to visit.

Describe a city you would like to visit.

You should say:

- where it is
- how you know about it
- what you would do there
- why you want to go

My 1-minute notes

- Kyoto • Honshu, Japan • old imperial capital
- documentary • friend's exchange year • her photos
- Gion backstreets • soak up atmosphere • matcha sweets
- bamboo forest • tea ceremony
- broaden my horizons • ancient + modern • very different culture
- change of scenery • daily grind • bucket list

SAMPLE ANSWER • BAND 8

I • Intro (where it is)	The city I would love to visit more than any other is Kyoto, in Japan. It's on the main island of Honshu, and it's steeped in history, because it used to be the imperial capital for over a thousand years.
P • How I know about it	I first heard about Kyoto from a documentary, and my interest grew when my university friend, who spent a year there on an exchange programme, showed me her photos. Not until I watched that documentary did I realise how much of old Japan still survives there, and my friend kept sending me stories and recipes, so I feel I almost know the place already.
P • What I would do there	Were I to go, I'd spend the first few days wandering the backstreets of the old Gion district and soaking up the atmosphere. I'd definitely sample the local cuisine, especially fresh matcha sweets, and I'd get up early to see the bamboo forest before the crowds arrive. I'd also love to join a traditional tea ceremony.
E • Reason 1	The main reason I want to go is that it would broaden my horizons. What makes Kyoto special is that ancient temples sit right beside modern streets, and since Japan is very different from Uzbekistan, I'd learn a great deal just by watching daily life.
E • Reason 2	On top of that, I'm after a change of scenery. Life in Tashkent is fast, and I'd love to get away from the daily grind and be somewhere calm where I could clear my head.
W • Wrap-up	So, all in all, Kyoto is high on my bucket list. I'm sure it would leave a lasting impression on me, and I'm dying to go as soon as I can afford the ticket.
