SAMPLE ANSWER • BAND 8

I • Intro (what)	I'd like to talk about a gift I received on my twentieth birthday: a handmade photo album from my younger sister. It looks simple, but it's the most thoughtful present I've ever had.
P • Who gave it	My sister Madina is only sixteen, so she doesn't have much money. Instead of buying something expensive, she put a lot of thought into making it herself. She spent weeks collecting old pictures from relatives, and I had no idea about it until the day itself.
P • The occasion	It was my birthday, but also the evening before I left for university in Tashkent. We were having a small dinner at home, and I was feeling a bit anxious. No sooner had we finished our tea than she brought out a box wrapped in newspaper and said it was for the journey.
E • Reason 1	The first reason it was special is that every page held a memory. There was a photo of me at six trying to ride a bike, one of my grandfather laughing, and short notes in her messy handwriting. What I love most about it is the last page, where she wrote, 'Come back soon, but enjoy everything.' I was deeply touched, and my eyes filled with tears.
E • Reason 2	On top of that, it has sentimental value. Whenever I feel homesick, I flip through it and it puts a smile on my face. If it weren't for that album, I think I would have struggled much more during my first winter away.
W • Wrap-up	So, all in all, it's a keepsake that means the world to me. Rarely do people remember expensive gifts, but they never forget a gesture from the heart. I wish I had given her something equally personal in return, so this year I'm making her a recipe book.
