- reasons: recharge my batteries • fond memories • closeness

SAMPLE ANSWER • BAND 8

I • Intro (what)	I'd like to talk about a holiday I took last August to Lake Issyk-Kul in Kyrgyzstan. It was a trip I'd wanted to make for years, and it turned out to be even better than I imagined.
P • Who I went with	I went with five of my cousins, and we split into two cars to share the cost. Since we were all on a tight budget, we planned an itinerary very carefully and booked a family guesthouse well in advance.
P • What we did	As for the activities, we did a bit of everything. We swam in the crystal-clear water every morning, went horse trekking through the mountains and spent one night in a traditional yurt. Not only did the locals welcome us warmly, but they also taught us how to cook their national dish, beshbarmak. In the evenings we simply sat by the water and soaked up the atmosphere.
E • Reason 1	The first reason it was so memorable is that the scenery was absolutely breathtaking. What struck me most was the silence of the mountains at dawn. After the noise of Tashkent, it was the perfect chance to unwind and recharge my batteries.
E • Reason 2	On top of that, it brought our family closer. Hardly had we left the city when we started telling old stories and jokes, and we haven't stopped since. I think I have fonder memories of that week than of any other holiday.
W • Wrap-up	So, all in all, it was the trip of a lifetime for me. If only I had stayed another week, I would have visited the hot springs too. Should you ever get the chance, I'd highly recommend it, because it was worth every penny.
